The Right Man for

the Right Place

If the right man could always find the right place, i. e., the one to which his ability and energy is best suited, the problem of unemployment would be solved, in the wrong job would be eliminated and the saving would take care of all who could find no work.

POPULAR RALLY FOR MEN.

The men of Norwich will have a treat tomorrow (Sunday) at 3,30 o'clock, at Y. M. C. A., when Mrs. Charles T. Bard, the popular soprano, will render selections at the men's rally.

The address of the occasion will be given by Rev. M. J. B. Fuller of Hanover, who will have a message of interest to men.

The orchestra will furnish several selections, and in addition will assist in the itong service.

the wong service. All men are most cordially invited to this very attractive service, which will be about one hour in length.

MARIE DRESSLER.

And Makel Normand in the Big Six Reel Keystone Comedy, Tillle's Punctured Romance.

There are more than a thousand leughs in Tillie's Functured Romance, with Marie Dressler, Charlie Chaplin and Mabel Normand, which begins an engagement at the Davis theatre on Monday. You laugh when Miss Dress-ier makes her first screen appearance with her dog. Miss Dressier, during her long career in the musical and legitimate theatres, has always been counted on to start the laughter the noment she made her first entrance. fon laugh, too, when she seizes big locks of wood and begins to throw them at a distance for her dog to rethem at a distance for her dog to retrieve. Tillio is a little (no, that's not the word) country maiden, and when one of the billets of wood strikes a young city chap right in the face you laugh again. The stranger is dragged by Tillie to her home. When he revives and excertains that Tillie's father has a bank roll the moment he first becomes conscious and makes efforts to annex that roll you are still laugh-

You certainly don't cease when the city chap, Charlie Chaplin, takes Tillie fo a cabaret and Tillie has her first drink. You don't stop, either, when Mabel, the city chap's city girl, interdy, a clever pair of eccentric come-dians, with an unusually intellidians, with an unusually intelli-gent dog, filing the headline position the way they keep the fun going. Gilleon and DeMott are heard in a new line of comedy talk with some good singing numbers throughout their specialty, and Grace Alison, a charming little singing and character change artist, delights her hearers in songs and recitations. The Paramount feature with Gladys Hanson, called The Straight Road, keeps up the standard of the pictures in every respect and many favorable comments have been expressed on the quality of the photo play. Mutual Movies and one funny Keystone comedy with and receiving plenteous applause for etc. one funny Keystone comedy with Ford Sterling who has returned to the Keystone company complete a very

ON TRIAL COMING

TO DAVIS THEATRE. Local theatregoers are in for a dra-matic treat. A real one, Confirmation of this assertion is furnished in Manter Craig's announcement that he has just closed a contract with Cohan & Harris which calls for the presentation of On Trial, probably the greatest melodrama success that the American stage has harbored in the past 25 years, at the Davis theatre Monday evening, April 5th.

On Trial is a marvelous play with the property of the clevery of the clevery which of its clevery than the property of the clevery which of its clevery than the property of the clevery which of its clevery than the property of the clevery of the clev an unusual plot. Much of its cleverness is due to its structural uniquene and mechanical ingenuity. But it is its acting virility that makes the piece stand out in bold relief among recent age productions.

On Trial is from the pen of Elmer

L. Reizenstein. It is his first play ef-fort, but judging by its reception in New York and Chicago, this author will have to be reckoned with as a future contributor to the contemporary stage. The play deals with the actualities of life so true, it is said, that audiences are electrified by its reality and stirred to acclamation by its tremendous climax.
On Trial is a wonderful play, wonderful in its technique; wonderful in its staging, and wonderful in the powerful interest it arouses, and its pro-duction in this city is an event that theatregoers can't afford to ignore. The sale of seats is announced to begin Friday at 10 a. m. Mail orders with remittance should be sent now to secure reservations. Seats on the subscription list must be called for Friday, otherwise they will be sold.

NEXT WEEK AT THE AUDITORIUM. Another big musical comedy bill has been secured by the management of this theatre to appear here all next week, and there will be the usual three shows a day and an entire change of programme, pictures and all, on Mon-day, Wednesday and Friday. The show is presented by Tod Brown, a well known producer and comedian, and is entitled Tod Brown's Minstrel Misses, taken from a very classy minstrel show he will present on Friday and Saturday of next week. School Days is the title of Monday's and Tuesday's bill, and it will be a neat musical comedy offering of a different style than the usua ool day" plays and promises to be distinct novelty. Tod Brown's show really in a class by itself and is own as a real girl show, there being sleven girls out of a total of fourteen people in the cast. They are all fine coking girls, too, and wear many elabprate costumes for their different song numbers. The show will run an hour, besides the pictures, and there will be no raise in prices. On the picture programme for Monday and Tuesday a special three-reel comedy feature enti-tled After Her Millions has been booked. This special is by the L-KO company, which has as its principal comedians Billie Ritchie and Gertrude Selby. After Her Millions is the fun-niest picture the L-KO people have ever put out and is one solid laugh-producer for a full three-quarters of new idea in the musical comedy line and a show that you can't afford to miss. Grace Cunard and Francis Ford will be seen on the picture screen to-day in Smuggler's Island, a corking two-reel drams, and the show will close with the Animated Weekly, depicting the very latest news items of the day.

> COLONIAL THEATRE. Weakling Brother, Two-Reel Lubin Feature, Today.

A singularly strange and interesting A singularly strange and interesting story is told today at the Colonial the-atre in the stirring and stupendous spectacle presented in two reels by a superb Lubin cast and entitled Her Weakling Brother. It has to do with a young girl, her brother, his evil asso-ciates and her stalwart lover. The a young girl, her brother, his evil asso-ciates and her stalwart lover. The brother steals checks from the lover's office and, forging the signatures, se-cures large sums of money. The blame is placed upon the lover by the girl's employer, but in view of the circum-stances the employer refuses to press the prospection if the girl will promise the prosecution if the girl will promise to marry him. This she agrees to do. The disgraced lover, hearing of this, returns from where he has been in hiding in time to avert the wedding and bring the guilty brother to justice. Other films for today are Milady's Boudoir, Biograph comedy drama; Mr. Daly's Wedding Day, with Augustus Phillips; Greenbacks and Redskins, Lubin comedy.

Tou certainly don't cease when the city chap, Charlie Chaplin, takes Tillie to a cabaret and Tillie has her first drink. You don't stop, either, when Mabel, the city chap's city girl, interapts the proceedings. And you are teeping it up when Tillie becomes for a little time the supposed possessor of several million dollars. And so you continue on your laughing way through the whole series of screen scenes that follows.

There are six reels in this comedy masterplece and a million laughs are provided by Marie Dressler and Charlie Chaplin.

ACROSS THE SEA. Across the sea I heard the groans
Of nations in the intervals
Of wind and waves. Their blood a

Cried out in torture, crushed by thrones,
And sucked by priestly cannibals. I dreamed of Freedom slowly gained By martyr meckness, patience, faith, and lo! an athlete grimly stained With corded muscles battle-strained, Shouting it on the fields of death.

turn me, awe-struck, from the sight, Among the clamoring thousands Among the clamoring incusands mute; fonly know that God is right And that the children of the light Shall tread the darkness under foot.

That suitry skies the bolt will form o smite them clear; that Nature must the balance of her powers adjust. Though with the earthquake and the God reigns, and let the earth rejoice! I bow before His sterner plan. Dumb are the organs of my choice, He speaks in battle's stormy voice. His praise is in the wrath of man.

Yet, surely as He lives, the day
Of peace He promised shall be ours,
To fold the flags of war, and lay
Its sword and spear to rust away,
And sow its ghastly fields with flowers.
